考题文字:	Which value do you think is the most important and should be shared with young children (5-10 years old) and why? <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Being honest 2. Being helpful for others 3. Being well-organized Use specific examples to support your answer.
参考范文:	It is quite common these days for both parents and teachers to set a good example for their young children's values, among which are helpful to others, honest and well-organized. I think helping others is of great importance in these three aspects because this assists children aged at 5 to 10 years old to be happy and adjust to the society with ease. The first reason may involve the recognition that helping others enables young children to acquire a sense of happiness because young children who are willing to help others are easy to make friends with others. For example, one of my friends named Jack whose child, Tom, often helps his peers in his class. One day, Tom was on the way to school when he saw a girl, worried and anxious, called Jane lose her way to the school. Tom went forward to Jane, asking what's wrong with her. Jane told Tom what happened to her. As a result, Tom led Jane to her school and thus they made friends with each other, thus making Tom feel happy.

Building on the reason that helping others enable young children to feel happy, another point to support my assertion is that it's easy for young children to adapt themselves to the accelerating society because this will pave the way for their future career. According to an international organization, 80% adults who always helped others at young age have handsome salaries an decent job.

Admittedly, an overwhelming majority of people claims that being honesty and well-organized are two characteristics of importance for children at young age. However, those two values are much easier to acquire in their later life because they can learn them from their parents, teachers and other ways. Therefore, helping others are of vital importance to learn at young age.

From what we have discussed above, a conclusion can be reached that young children reap the benefits of helping others, which is one of the critical important value. Only in this way can young children enjoy a prosperous and promising future.

本次新托福独立写作重复了 2015 年 8 月 1 日北美, 2017 年 5 月 3/27 日中国大陆考题, 总体来说写作难度适度, 但是要注意文章的审题的准确性和写作条理性。
