Question 1	Do you agree or disagree with the following statement? Children should read and watch news from a young age. Use specific examples and details to explain your answer.
Question 2	Reading part 【学生建议】: Notice: The university is going to develop online course evaluation. Reason 1: Online evaluation saves time for students in the last week of the semester. Reason 2: Students can get results much earlier on the Internet than through the paper.	Listening part 【学生态度】: The man disagrees. Reason 1: Students have too many things to do in the last week of the semester so they might even forget to take evaluation; Reason 2: There is a long vacation so professors don't need to produce the results in such a short time; If the professors can give results just three weeks before the new semester, students will be OK with it.
	Question: Explain the man's opinion and why he holds that opinion.
	Reading part 【名词解释】: Interviewer Influence Some companies focus more on target customers.	Listening part 【教授举例】: Example: The furniture company plans to sell something different, so it finds the customers who want to buy furniture, rather than following traditional sales strategies. The company posts pictures of the goods on the blog in order to attract more customers. The result is that the company gains huge profits from the new strategy.
Question 3	Question: 用听力的例子来解释对这个概念的理解。
	【讲课要点】: Two disadvantages of licensing In order to gain more profits, some companies make and sell products in other countries. First, It's hard to control the quality of products. E.g.: A shoe company allows foreign companies to make shoes in other countries. However, foreign companies use cheap material to make shoes so the reputation of the home company will be ruined. Second, Foreign companies will compete with the home company. E.g.: A cellphone company uses new technology on its products, and allows a foreign company to help sell products. Then the foreign company learns about the new technology and produces products.

Question 1	Do you agree or disagree with the following statement? Children should learn to use computers and other electronic devices as early as possible. Use details and examples to support your answer.
Question 2	Reading part	Listening part
	【学校通知】: The university plans to switch teaching evaluation system, so students can finish the feedback on the Internet.	【学生态度】: The woman agrees with the proposal. 1. The university can save tons of paper, to avoid printing the feedback package. 2. The latest class can then be used to do revisions.
	Question: Explain the woman's opinion and why she holds that opinion.
Question 3	Reading part	Listening part
	【名词解释】: Social Inhibition: some animals live in groups, and every member in a group has its own role. For example, the young ones need to study and the old ones need to find foods. In some cases, the old animals prevent the young ones from doing things that should be done by old ones.	【教授举例】: The professor takes honeybees as an example. The young bees have to stay in a hive and the old bees come out to find food. In order to prevent young bees coming out, old bees may produce a kind of chemical material, and young bees respond to this material by staying in the hive. When more old bees die, the amount of chemical material will decrease, so young bees come out of the hive to find food just like the old bees did.
	Question: 用听力的例子来解释对这个概念的理解。
Question 4	【讲课要点】: There are two different ways of hibernation for different species The first way is to hibernate in regular time. Example 1: The squirrels often eat a lot of food in summer. When it is warm, they will store a lot of food, then, they will choose to hibernate in late summer. The second way is to hibernate in cold weather or find few food. Example 2: If there is enough food in warm climate, poky mouse will no longer hibernate.
