Question 2	Reading part	Listening part
	【学校公告】 The writer of the letter hopes the school can hold classes outside for 2 reasons: 1. Good scenery makes students focus and not get bored. 2. School has installed some benches and seats outside the classroom.	【学生态度】 The man disagrees with the proposal. 1. There would be too many distractions. Friends may pass by and say hello to them. 2. There would not be enough seats and some students would have to stand. It would not be convenient for students to take notes.
	Question: Explain the man's opinion and why he holds that opinion.
Question 3	Reading part	Listening part
	【名词解释】 Population cycle in ecology system.	【教授举例】 Wolves are the predators and the mice are the prey. Step 1: When there are a lot of mice, wolves have enough food, the number of mice decreases and the number of wolves increases. Step 2: When the number of mice decreases, the wolves lack food and then the number of wolves decreases. Then the number of mice increases. Step 3: Equivalent to step 1.
	Question: 用听力的例子来解释对这个概念的理解。

Question 1	Some people prefer to get advice from their parents or grandparents. Others prefer to get advice from their peers. Which do you prefer and why?
Question 2	Reading part	Listening part
	【学生倡议】 The student wrote a letter to the university newspaper to suggest that the evaluation result of professors should be exposed to the university since: 1. professors will be motivated to work harder after seeing this; 2. students can have reference when deciding on courses.	【学生态度】 The woman disagrees with the letter. 1. Professors won't be happy to be justified so that they might not be cooperative in teaching. 2. Evaluations often are made immediately after class when students really want to leave, so students may not be able to provide any helpful advices.
	Question: Explain the woman's opinion and why she holds that opinion.
Question 3	Reading part	Listening part
	【名词解释】 passive locomotion: Animals can be carried by something in the environment without using their own efforts to find food resources.	【教授举例】 Let's take spider as an example. As we all know spiders can move by walking or jumping, but that won't let them go far. Sometimes spiders will use winds to help them move. They climb onto a high point, say the top of a tree, and then generate silk. Because spiders are light, the wind will carry them when they attach to the silk and give them a free ride.
	Question: 用听力的例子来解释对这个概念的理解。
Question 4	【讲课要点】 Two kinds of people and how they use different strategies when making choices. 1. Maximize: They always try to evaluate among different alternatives before deciding on the best. For example, students who study journalism have the possibilities of working for newspaper, magazine or other kinds of media, so they will often look through all these possibilities before they finally choose their job. 2. Satisfier: This type of people is satisfied with whatever meets his or her basic requirement. For example, a law student will most probably be satisfied with a job as a lawyer, as long as the salaries are reasonable.
